

Transportation Key Facts

Our Target Market

- Insured who has stable operations and long term contracts with freight providers
- Drivers that operate on regular and familiar routes
- Up to 100 power units with a preference for accounts maintaining a consistent size over past year
- Routes with either local, intermediate, or long haul radius
- Hauls non hazardous commodities
- Accounts that emphasize loss prevention and a good driving environment

Maxum Products & Coverage

- Package policy with Auto Liability, Physical Damage and Motor Truck Cargo
- Unique pricing approach that reduces premium as you drive less miles
- Physical Damage written on a stated value basis that includes a single deductible, financed value and temporary substitute coverage at no additional cost
- Towing and Storage coverage provided at no charge and payable outside limit of insurance
- Cargo on both owned goods and goods hauled for hire; one of the broader forms in the industry

The Maxum Advantage

- Claims service provided 24/7 by expert and experienced staff who understand your business
- Timely and accurate regulatory filings made to keep truckers on the road
- Proprietary pricing approach rewarding the stability and quality of a Trucking business
- Installment plans offered with a low minimum premium and a low down-payment
- Reporting Form policies written on a mileage or per unit basis
- Private ownership with over 50 years experience in the trucking insurance industry

